
CONTENTS

VOL. 27

OCTOBER 1965

NO. 1

Camellia — Flower of the Gold Rush, The. A. E. Morrison	16
Early Camellia Show at L. A. County Arboretum, December 4 and 5, 1965	19
Hot Numbers. Pat Novak	28
New Readers	15
Outstanding Camellias Viewed During 1964-65 Season. Spencer C. Walden, Jr.	12
Phone Call, The Ben Rayner	27
Planting Mixtures, Fertilizers, and Camellia Culture C. P. North and A. Wallace	3
Project to Study Effect of Gibberellic Acid on Camellia Plants	24
Questions and Answers. A. Wilkins Garner	25
Sasanquas — Some Questions and Their Answers by Julius Nuccio	26
Sharing Experiences. Melvin L. Gum	14
Temple City Breakfast	18
Thoughts From the Editor	2
Trip to New Zealand and a Visit With Camellia People W. F. Goertz	20
Why and How of Sports, The. As Reported by Vern McCaskill	30

THE COVER FLOWER

This month's cover flower is a glorious deep pink formal, an introduction of Monrovia Nursery Company, Azusa, California. The petals of 'Pink Pagoda' are unusual, topped one on the other in undulating waves that create a fascinating appearance. The plant is vigorous growing, compact branching, with broad oval foliage of lustrous green. It blooms midseason.
