

---

---

CONTENTS

VOL. 29

MARCH 1968

NO. 5

Camellia Flower Blight Control	Harold E. Dryden	14
Camellia Personalities—Professor E. G. Waterhouse, O. B. E.	T. J. Savige	5
Camellias in Brand Park, Glendale	Mrs. W. V. Lytle	22
Container Culture of Camellias Does Not Require Large Containers		16
Feeding Camellias	I. John Movich	17
Fertilizers—What We Should Know About Them	Edgar Denison	24
“My Twenty Best Japonicas”		30
Northern California Camellia Council		23
Seedlings at Park Hill	William H. Pike	20
Show Results		8
Sunset Camellia Book Updated		23
Systemic Pesticides	Harry G. Walker	19
Temple City Camellia Society		23
Thoughts From the Editor		2
To Fertilize or Not to Fertilize	David L. Feathers	3
William Hertrich Memorial Dedicated		18

---

---

THE COVER FLOWER

C. Japonica ‘Scentsation’

The distinctive feature of this month’s cover flower is that it has a definite sweet fragrance. The bloom is good also, a large silvery pink japonica seedling. Plant growth is medium, upright, compact. It blooms early to mid-season.

---

---