
CONTENTS

VOL. 31

OCTOBER 1969

NO. 1

California Introductions in 1969	3
Cal-Poly Voorhis Campus Demonstration Garden Mrs. William E. Meyer (Janet)	21
Camellia Culture S. B. Davi, Mrs. Virginia Rankin, Thomas E. Hughes	9
Camellia Journey, The (poem) Mrs. Eric Funker	24
Camellia Personalities — Colonel Frank Reed Ernie Pieri	14
Camellia Seeds — An Interesting Part of the Camellia Hobby Harold E. Dryden	18
Camellias — Strains W. F. Wilson, Jr.	12
More Comment on Camellia Reticulata Col. Tom Durrant	4
New Nomenclature Book in December 1969	17
S. C. C. S. Awards Dinner at Descanso	20
S. C. C. S. Dues Increase to $6.50 in 1970	8
Therapeutic Value of Sawdust James H. McCoy	23
Thoughts From the Editor	2
Where Do You Stand? (poem)	20

THE COVER FLOWER

C. Japonica 'Carnival Queen'

This month's cover flower, a chance seedling, is a 1969 introduction of Nuccio's Nurseries, Altadena, California. It is a large irregular semi-double to full peony white flower with bold stripes of rose red and pale pink, that blooms mid-season. Growth is strong and upright.
