THE COVER FLOWERS

The four new camellias pictured on the cover are miniature C. Japonica seedlings developed by Nuccio's Nurseries in Altadena and released this fall, 1981. At the top left is the cultivar 'Tinker Toy,' a white, speckled and striped rose red miniature anemone form. Next — top right is the cultivar 'Little Bo Peep.' This is a pale pink miniature formal double with huge green leaves. At the bottom right is the cultivar 'Lemon Drop,' a creamy white with a lemon yellow bud center. The form is rose form double. At the bottom left is the cultivar 'Lipstick,' a dark red with white petaloids bordered red. It has a miniature anemone form. The color separations for this picture are courtesy of Nuccio's Nurseries.
