'Rudy's Magnoliaeflora'

This flower, a brilliant rose pink sport of 'Magnoliaeflora', is a medium size semi-double with compact, bushy growth. It has all the fine qualities of its parent.

In 1983, the late Rudy Moore found this sport of 'Magnoliaeflora'. He gave it to Julius Nuccio to test. It has not reverted and is the only known sport of 'Magnoliaeflora' to have been discovered.

Helen and I are donating the color plate appearing on the cover in memory of Rudy Moore.

Julius Nuccio saw fit to use Rudy's name in the flower's title with the permission of Rudy's widow Geri Moore.

It is listed in Nuccio's 1989-90 catalogue.
